Annual Corporate Tour Policy: Apis India Ltd

Purpose:

The purpose of Annual Corporate Trip policy is to provide clear guidelines for company's annual corporate tour. The goal is to create an inclusive environment while ensuring the tour remains organized, safe, and enjoyable for all attendees.

1. Eligibility

- ❖ All regular employees of HO and factory who has completed their probation period.
- ❖ Employees are eligible to bring one or more immediate family members (spouse, children) to the corporate tour on their own cost given that they will share the room with the colleagues. (Refer point no. 4)
- ❖ Family members who wish to attend must be registered by the employee at the time of the corporate tour plan.
- ❖ The employee who has requested first will be given preference based on FIFO basis
- ❖ The employees who have resigned from the company, will not be considered for the corporate tour.
- ❖ The company reserves the right to allow/deny the employee or limit the number of his family members, depending on logistical considerations.
- ❖ Management approval will be required if any Manager or HOD wish to join the trip given that he will bear the cost of the trip. Company reserves the right to refuse.

2. Registration Process

- ❖ Employees must submit a formal request before 1 month or any period decided by HR department to include family members in the corporate event. This request should include:
 1. Employee Name
 2. Number of family members
 3. Names and ages of family members (for safety and accommodation purposes)
- ❖ After the registration period closes, confirmations will be sent to all employees who registered family members, including the number of people allowed and any additional instructions for the corporate tour.

3. Logistics and Planning

- ❖ The company will arrange transportation and stay for employees and their family members. The seating arrangements will be based on the number of registrations received.
- ❖ The venue should be family-friendly, with activities and amenities suitable for children and adults.
- ❖ An event itinerary shall be prepared and shared in advance with all attendees, highlighting the schedule, meal timings, and available activities

4. Cost Management

- ❖ The company will cover the cost of the picnic for the employee only.
- ❖ If an employee registers additional family members, the portion of the costs or charge for any additional family members attending will be as following:
 1. Age below 5 years: No cost (Room on sharing basis with colleague)
 2. Age above 5 years below 10 years: 50% of the cost (Room on sharing basis with colleague /extra bed on availability)
 3. Age above 10 years: 100% of the cost (Rooms will be provided with family)
- ❖ The employee will deposit the cost of his family members attending the trip in advance.

5. Code of Conduct and Behaviour

- ❖ All employees and their family members attending the corporate tour must adhere to the company's code of conduct during the event.
- ❖ All employee and family members must behave in a manner that maintains the integrity and professionalism of the company.
- ❖ Any disruptive behaviour by employee or family members may lead to removal from the event, and the employee may be held responsible for any incidents which may lead to termination from employment

6. Safety and Emergency Protocols

- ❖ All family members, especially children, must be supervised by the employee
- ❖ Emergency contact details for each attendee, including family members, should be provided during tour.
- ❖ In case of an emergency, employees should immediately contact the event organizers or designated emergency personnel.

7. Communication

- ❖ The Human Resources (HR) department will communicate event details, including registration instructions, event itinerary, transportation logistics, and dress codes, well in advance.
- ❖ A final reminder will be sent 3 days before the event, confirming the registration details and any special instructions.
- ❖ Event feedback will be collected after the picnic to assess the experience and make improvements for future events.

8. Responsibilities

8.1 HR Department:

- Handle the registration process.
- Ensure logistical arrangements for transportation, venue, and activities.
- Coordinate the collection of emergency contact details.
- Provide communication before and after the event.

8.2 Event Organizers:

- Ensure that the event runs smoothly on the day of the corporate tour
- Oversee the safety and well-being of all attendees, including family members.
- Manage any issues or emergencies that arise during the event.

9. Cancellation:

As minimum guarantee is provided to the tour operator, the following charges are applicable if an employee cancel or deny for the trip...

- Cancellation between 0-5 days- Employee will bear the full cost of the trip which will be recovered from him.
- Cancellation between 5-10 days- Employee will bear the 50% cost of the trip which will be recovered from him.
- Cancellation between 10-15 days- No cost will be recovered from the employee.

Note: If company observes that no loss has been incurred in the trip due to the cancellation by an employee, the cancellation cost will be waived off as per management discretion.

10. Confirmation cut off:

The cut off time for the confirmation of the availability for the trip is within 5 days after the announcement of the trip. If not confirmed, employee will not be considered for the trip.
